City Manager Speaks To Kiwanis

For the second time since becoming city manager in November, Dana Souza spoke to the Sanibel-Captiva Kiwanis Club, providing those in attendance with an encouraging message on the state of the City of Sanibel. Souza educated Kiwanians on the strategic planning process the city council has directed, a first for the city in over 20 years. He discussed the competitive employee market, addressing the council-directed wage and compensation study, another first in many years. Numerous current issues were touched on based on local and regional factors.*
